NORTHERN MIDLANDS COUNCIL

POLICY MANUAL

AMENDMENT

Council retains the sole discretion to reasonably vary, terminate or replace this Policy from time to time. Council will consult before amendments are made and will notify and train those the amendments apply to.

INTERPRETATION OF POLICY

The singular includes the plural and vice versa.

A reference to any legislation includes all delegated legislation made under it and amendments, consolidations, replacement or re-enactments of any of them.

A reference to a policy or procedure means any approved policies or procedures of Council unless otherwise stated.

'Including' and similar expressions are not words of limitation.

A reference to a document (including this document) is to that document as amended, novated or replaced unless otherwise stated.

Where a word or expression is given a particular meaning, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of that work or expression have a corresponding meaning.

Examples used in this Policy are for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to be exhaustive.

Unless expressly provided for, this Policy is not in any way incorporated as part of any enterprise agreement and does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and any applicable enterprise agreement or contract of employment will prevail over this Policy to the extent of any inconsistency.

It is not intended that this Policy impose any obligations on the Council or those covered by it that are unreasonable or contrary to the operation so applicable laws. Any obligation, direction, instruction or responsibility imposed by this Policy must be carried out in a manner that an objective third party would consider to be fair and reasonable taking into account and in the context of all the relevant applicable laws, operational and personal circumstances.

Questions relating to the interpretation, application or enforcement of this Policy should be directed to the person's manager/supervisor, the Work, Health & Safety Officer or the People & Culture Business Partner.

REPORTING OF BREACHES

Persons covered under the paragraph 'Coverage' must reasonably report breaches of infringing workplace behaviour as follows:

For breaches by:

- an employee, worker (other than the General Manager) or other person at the workplace the report must go to the reporting person's applicable manager/supervisor;
- the General Manager the report must go to the Mayor (or if unavailable to the next appropriately delegated Councillor) and as otherwise required or permitted by applicable laws.

BREACH OF THIS POLICY

Persons covered under the paragraph 'Coverage' who engage in infringing workplace behaviour may (as is appropriate and as is applicable) be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the Disciplinary Policy and Procedure (employees) or removal from the workplace or termination of services (workers, other than employees and other persons at the workplace). Infringing workplace behaviour may also amount to breaches of applicable laws:

- exposing individuals to legal proceedings and
- making Council vicariously liable for the conduct of others

POLICY MANUAL

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Work Health and Safety Policy is to:

- recognise Council's commitment to providing a safe and healthy workplace for workers and other persons at the workplace whose health, safety or wellbeing could be at risk through the work they do or that they are exposed to
- direct and guide workers and other persons at the workplace regarding action considered reasonably practicable to protect health and safety
- operate with any applicable laws or policies and procedures
- comply with applicable laws through implementing:
 - appropriate plans, policies and procedures and programs to support and implement this Policy
 - measurable safety performance objectives and targets
 - training on health and safety matters relevant to Council work
 - induction programs
 - consultation, cooperation and coordination processes
 - reporting of all hazards, incidents, accidents and, near misses
 - adequate resources
 - monitoring, reviewing and verification of Council systems
 - corrective action where it is identified that the acts of omissions of persons are putting themselves at risk

Council recognises its duty of care under the Work Health & Safety Act 2012 (TAS) and will provide a fair and flexible approach to work, health and safety activities that takes into consideration the individual, operational and environmental circumstances.

3. COVERAGE:

This Policy covers and applies to workers and other persons at the workplace in relation to all work, health and safety matters.

4. REQUIREMENTS:

Workers and other persons at the workplace must comply with this Policy.

Workers and other persons at the workplace are required to meet their duty of care obligations and to be accountable for their own health, safety and wellbeing, as well as the health, safety and wellbeing of others at the workplace.

Workers and other persons at the workplace (unless otherwise notified in writing) are required to adhere to lawful and reasonable directions, policies and procedures regarding compliance with this Policy and health and safety generally.

Managers/Supervisors are required to:

- promote this Policy within their area of responsibility
- take reasonable steps to ensure that any potential breaches of this Policy are identified, taken seriously and acted upon appropriately and
- where applicable, if and as officers meet their due diligence obligations

Compliance with legislative requirements in regards to work health and safety is the minimum standard acceptable to Council and we recognise that all persons are required to contribute to this to achieve this objective. Anyone found to be in breach of this Work Health and Safety Policy may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
